

News from Creighton First Baptist Church

On Sunday, February 18 Janet and I left after church and headed South to Florida for a warm winter vacation. Monday the 19th we stopped in Tupelo, Mississippi. If you are ever in the area I recommend stopping and seeing the birthplace of Elvis "The King". I am not saying this as an avid Elvis fan, but more of one who enjoys history, also it is very reasonable to tour, that is right up my alley, I like a bargain. They had three main things that cost, the museum, the house and the best part was the old church building Elvis attended as a child.

As we toured, I saw a few signs and stuff that said, "The King." I am not sure, but the workers that were there seemed to think Elvis was saved and is in the presence of the Lord now. If that is the case, he is standing before the King of Kings. All earthly kings die and their reign ends, but Jesus is no ordinary king. He conquered death, rose from the grave, His kingdom continues today and grows every day. The best part is, He is coming back for us at any time.

On Friday night March 29, we will have our good Friday service and then Sunday morning March 31 we will celebrate the resurrection of Jesus—The King of Kings. I hope you will join us as we celebrate, if not attend somewhere and celebrate the resurrection of Jesus—the only one to conquer death.

Luke 24:5-6 "Why do you seek the living, among the dead? He is not here, He is risen."

Have a blessed month.

For the month of March, we are going to take a break from our studies based upon the book by Nancy Holyoke entitled MANNERS—the secret to grace, confidence, and being your best.

Last week, we began exploring and reading together Psalm 119. Once we have completed this, we will see just where the Lord leads as we continue working together in the TeamKID ministry through the remainder of this school year.

Classic Three Bean Salad

Kosher salt	½ C. chopped red onion
1 lb. fresh green beans, trimmed	2 T. chopped parsley
1 15-oz. can cannellini or other white beans, drained and rinsed	Dressing:
1 15-oz. can red kidney beans, drained and rinsed	1/3 C. olive oil
½ C. chopped celery	¼ C. red wine vinegar
	Juice of 1 lemon
	1-1/2 tsp. kosher salt
	½ tsp. ground black pepper

For the salad: Heat a large pot of water over high heat and bring to a boil. Season generously with salt. Add the green beans and cook for 3 to 5 minutes, until tender, but still have a slight crunch. Drain in a Colander and rinse well under cold water until cool. Chop into 1-inch pieces. For the dressing: In a large bowl, whisk to combine the olive oil, red wine vinegar, lemon juice, salt and black pepper. Added the cooled green beans, cannellini beans, kidney beans, celery, red onion, and parsley to the bowl with the dressing. Toss well to combine and serve.

Stuffed Pepper Soup

1 8.8 oz. pkg. ready-to-serve long grain and wild rice	1 26 oz. jar chunky tomato paste sauce
1 lb. ground beef	1 14-1/2 oz. can Italian diced tomatoes, undrained
2 C. chopped green peppers	1 14 oz. can beef broth
1 C. chopped onion

Prepare rice according to package directions. Meanwhile, in a large saucepan, cook the beef, green peppers and onion until meat is no longer pink, crumbling beef; drain. Stir in the pasta sauce, tomatoes, broth and prepared rice; heat through.
