

News from Creighton First Baptist Church

Let me start by welcoming our newest member—Marcia LaFollette. If the name sounds familiar, she is Ricky's mother and yes, the grandmother of Roci Sue and Oliver. When we started streaming our services live, she was one of the first to start watching and listening. Sometimes we wonder if going live and having the services online encourages people to stay home and not come to church, that is not the case with Marcia. The Lord used our online streaming to draw her to our church. We are glad to have her and welcome home Marcia.

I know you know by now that the Kansas City Chiefs are going to the Super Bowl. As much as I like seeing the Chiefs in the Super Bowl and I will watch and cheer for them, I do feel sorry for John Harbaugh the coach of the Ravens. If you did not see his press conference after the game, he came out and read scripture to start. After reading the verse he said, "that was for me". I am encouraged to see people who are in positions of notoriety standing up for their faith and letting the world know where they stand. I am not into celebrities and do not let them direct my life, but I am glad to see them standing and I pray that we will stand wherever the Lord has planted us. Remember our focus is to Live Courageous in a hostile world.

Have a blessed month.

THE PRAYING HANDS

*The "Praying Hands" are much, much more than just a work of art, They are the "soul's creations" of a deeply thankful heart They are a Priceless Masterpiece that love alone could paint, And they reveal the selflessness of an unheralded saint These hands so scarred and toilworn, tell the story of a man Who sacrificed his talent in accordance with God's Plan For in God's Plan are many things man cannot understand, But we must trust God's judgement and be guided by His Hand - Sometime He asks us to give up our dreams of happiness, Sometimes we must forego our hopes of fortune and success - Not all of us can triumph or rise to heights of fame, And many times What Should Be Ours, goes to another Name - But he who makes a sacrifice, so another may succeed,
Is indeed a true disciple of our blessed Saviour's creed - For when we "give ourselves away" in sacrifice and love,
We are "laying up rich treasures" in God's kingdom up above - And hidden in gnarled, toilworn hands in the truest Art of Living, Achieved alone by those who've learned the "Victory of Giving"
For any sacrifice on earth, made in the dear Lord's name Assures the giver of a place in Heaven's Hall of Fame
And who can say with certainty
Where the Greatest Talent Lies,
Or Who Will Be the Greatest In Our Heavenly Father's Eyes!*

After missing a couple of lessons in January due to weather, we are now continuing our studies based upon the book by Nancy Holyoke entitled MANNERS—the secret to grace, confidence, and being your best. The lessons from the book have been adapted to incorporate biblical principles in conjunction with learning about good manners. It makes for a very interesting study, and if you are interested in learning more about good manners, you will not want to miss TEAMKID meetings!

Best Party Punch

64-oz. jug cran-raspberry juice
64-oz. jug fruit punch
32-oz. jug pineapple-orange juice
1 to 1 1/2 liters ginger ale, optional

Combine everything together in a pitcher and serve immediately or refrigerate until ready to serve. If making ahead, add ginger ale right before serving.

The punch recipe can be increased or decreased as needed using this simple formula: two parts cran-raspberry juice to two parts fruit punch to one part pineapple-orange juice. For every gallon of juice mixed, add 1 to 1 1/2 liters ginger ale, if desired.

Radish Salad with Herbs

Kosher salt and black pepper	Greek yogurt
3 bunches radishes, thinly sliced	2 T. fresh lemon juice
1 small shallot, thinly sliced	1/4 C. chopped fresh tender herbs such as dill, mint, chives, basil or cilantro
1/2 C. plain whole milk

In a large bowl, whisk together 3 cups cold water and 2 teaspoons kosher salt until dissolved. Add radishes and shallots; let sit 15 minutes. Drain radishes and shallots in a colander.

Wipe bowl dry then add yogurt and lemon juice; whisk to combine. Add drained radishes and shallot. dill and mint.

Toss to coat, season with salt and pepper to taste.
