C. They were not wiped out

III. Third lesson

A. Consequences for our actions

B. Forgiveness does not eliminate consequences

A black and white photograph of a cross on a beach. The cross is made of two wooden posts and stands on the right side of the frame. The beach is covered in sand with several footprints leading towards the cross. The sky is overcast and cloudy. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

A grayscale background image of a beach. In the foreground, there are several dark, irregular shapes on the sand, possibly footprints or shadows. In the distance, a simple wooden cross stands on the beach, silhouetted against a bright, hazy sky. The overall tone is somber and reflective.

C. Not all consequences
are automatic

IV. Examples from Scripture

A. Moses was forgiven but did not get to enter into the promised land

B. David was forgiven, but the baby died *Psalm 51:1-12

C. Paul could not run from his past

Acts 26:1-18

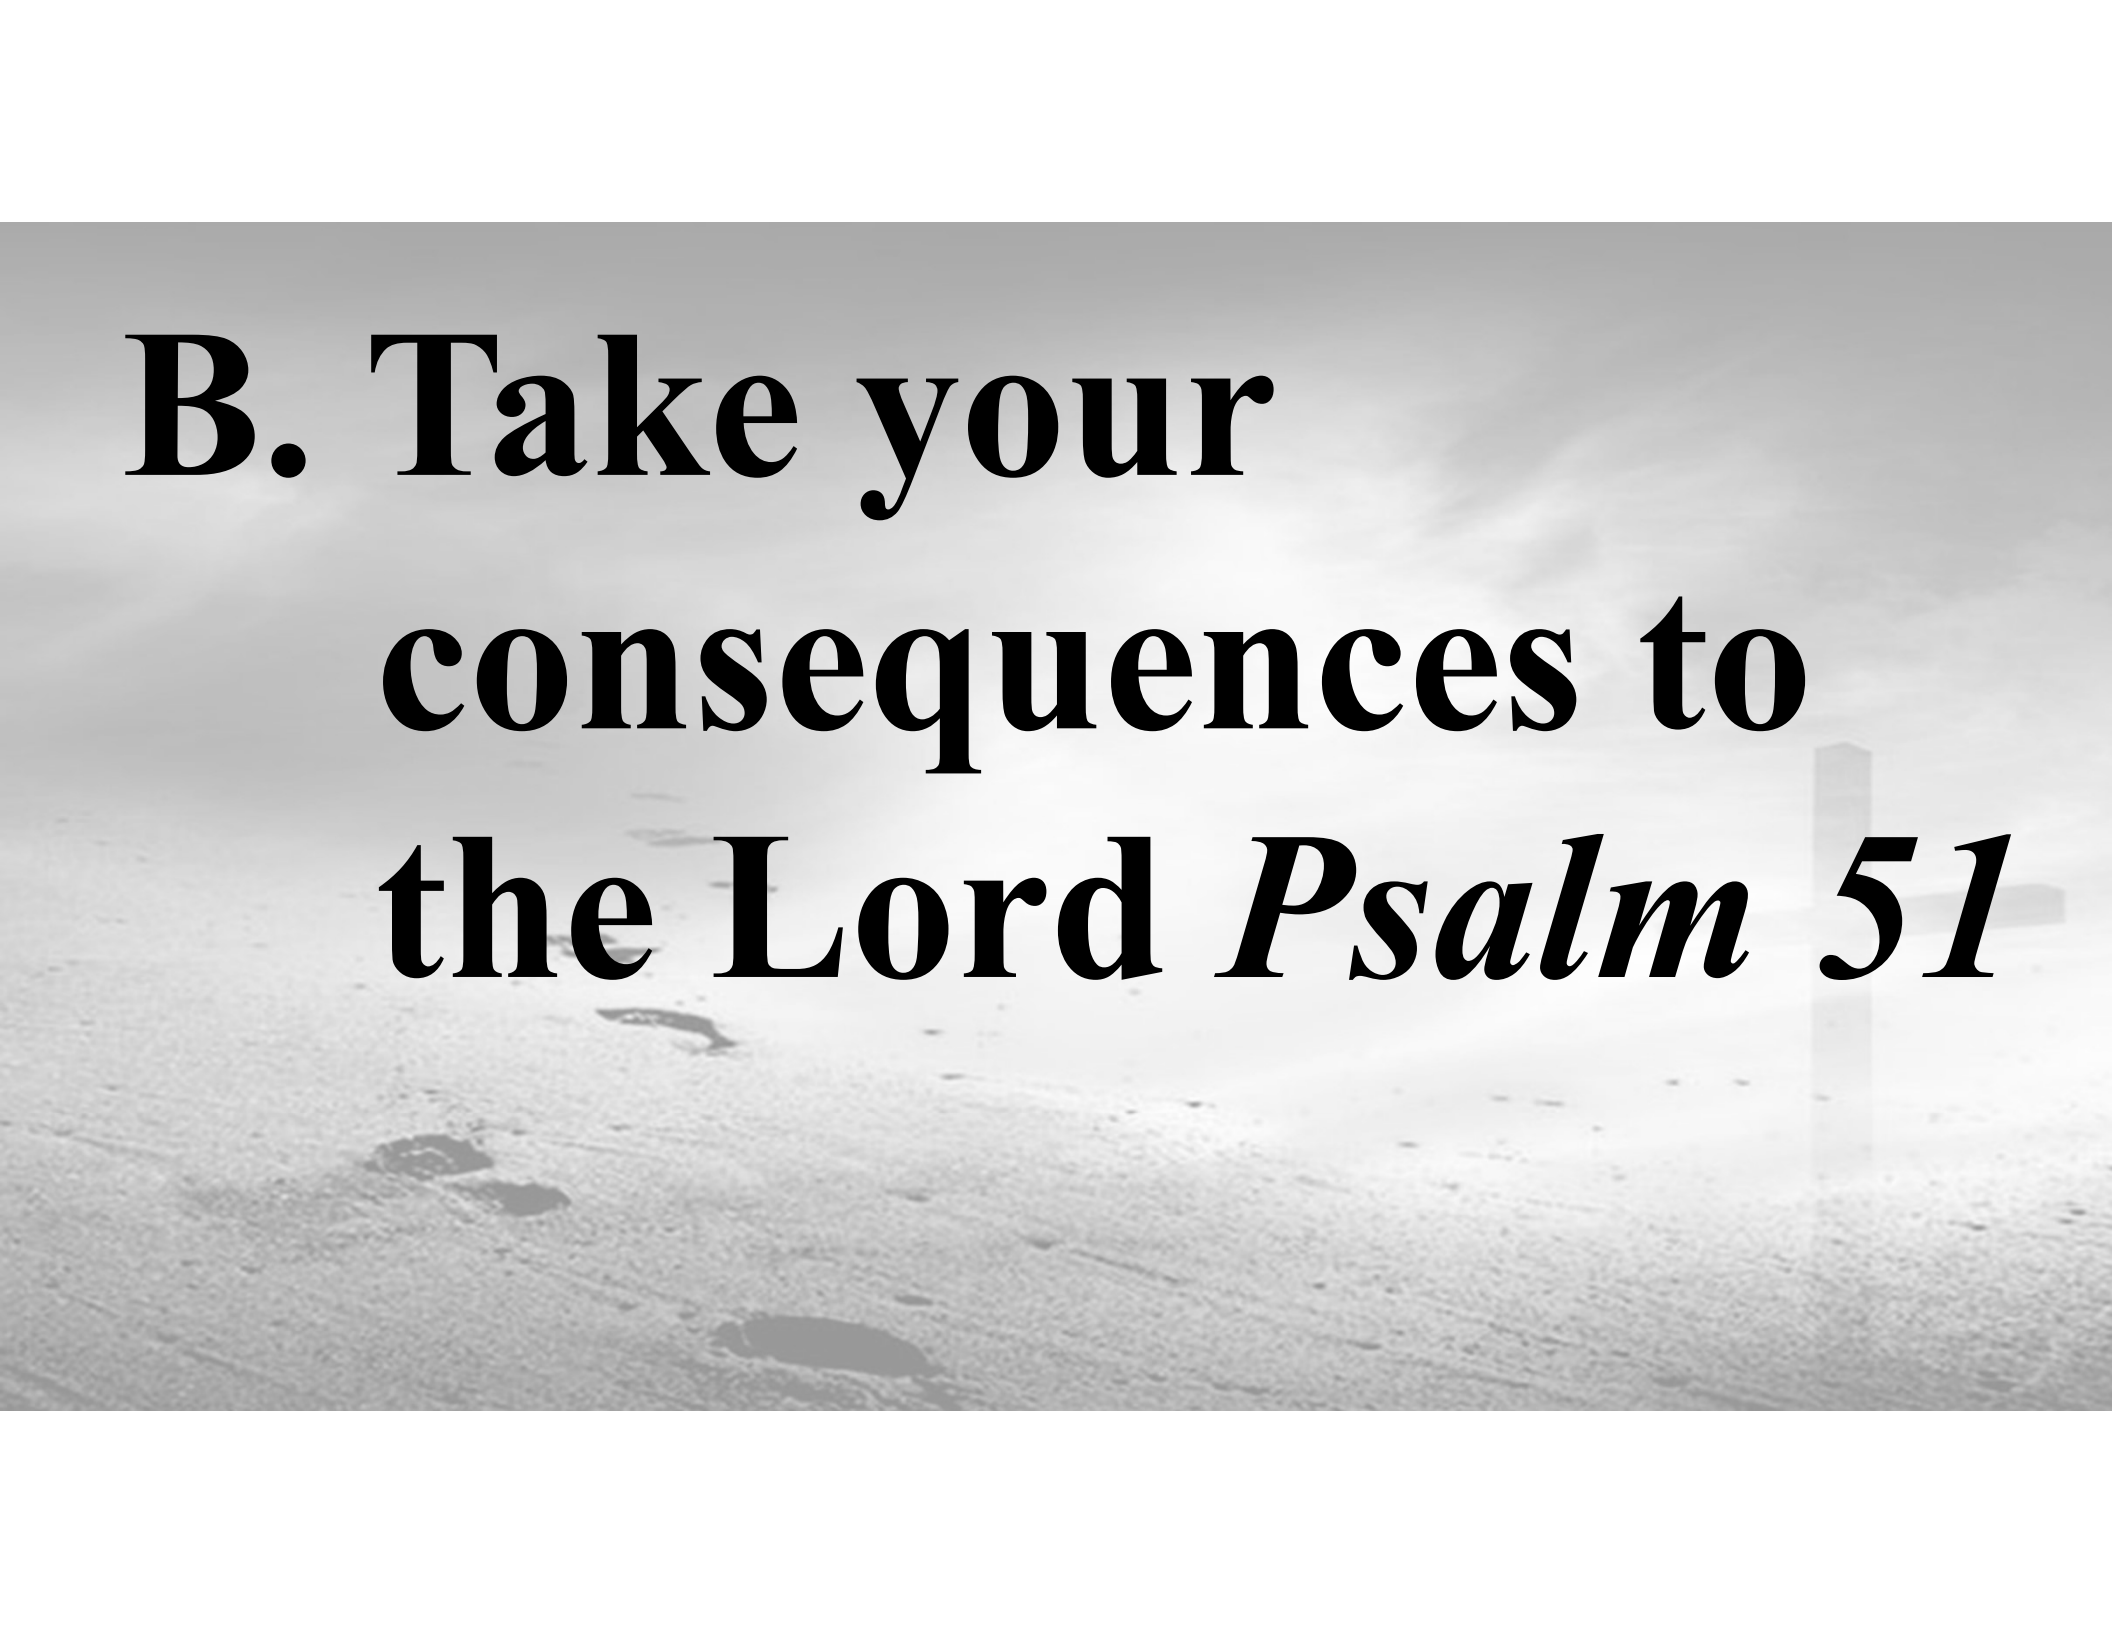

V. In your daily life

A. Pray about your decisions

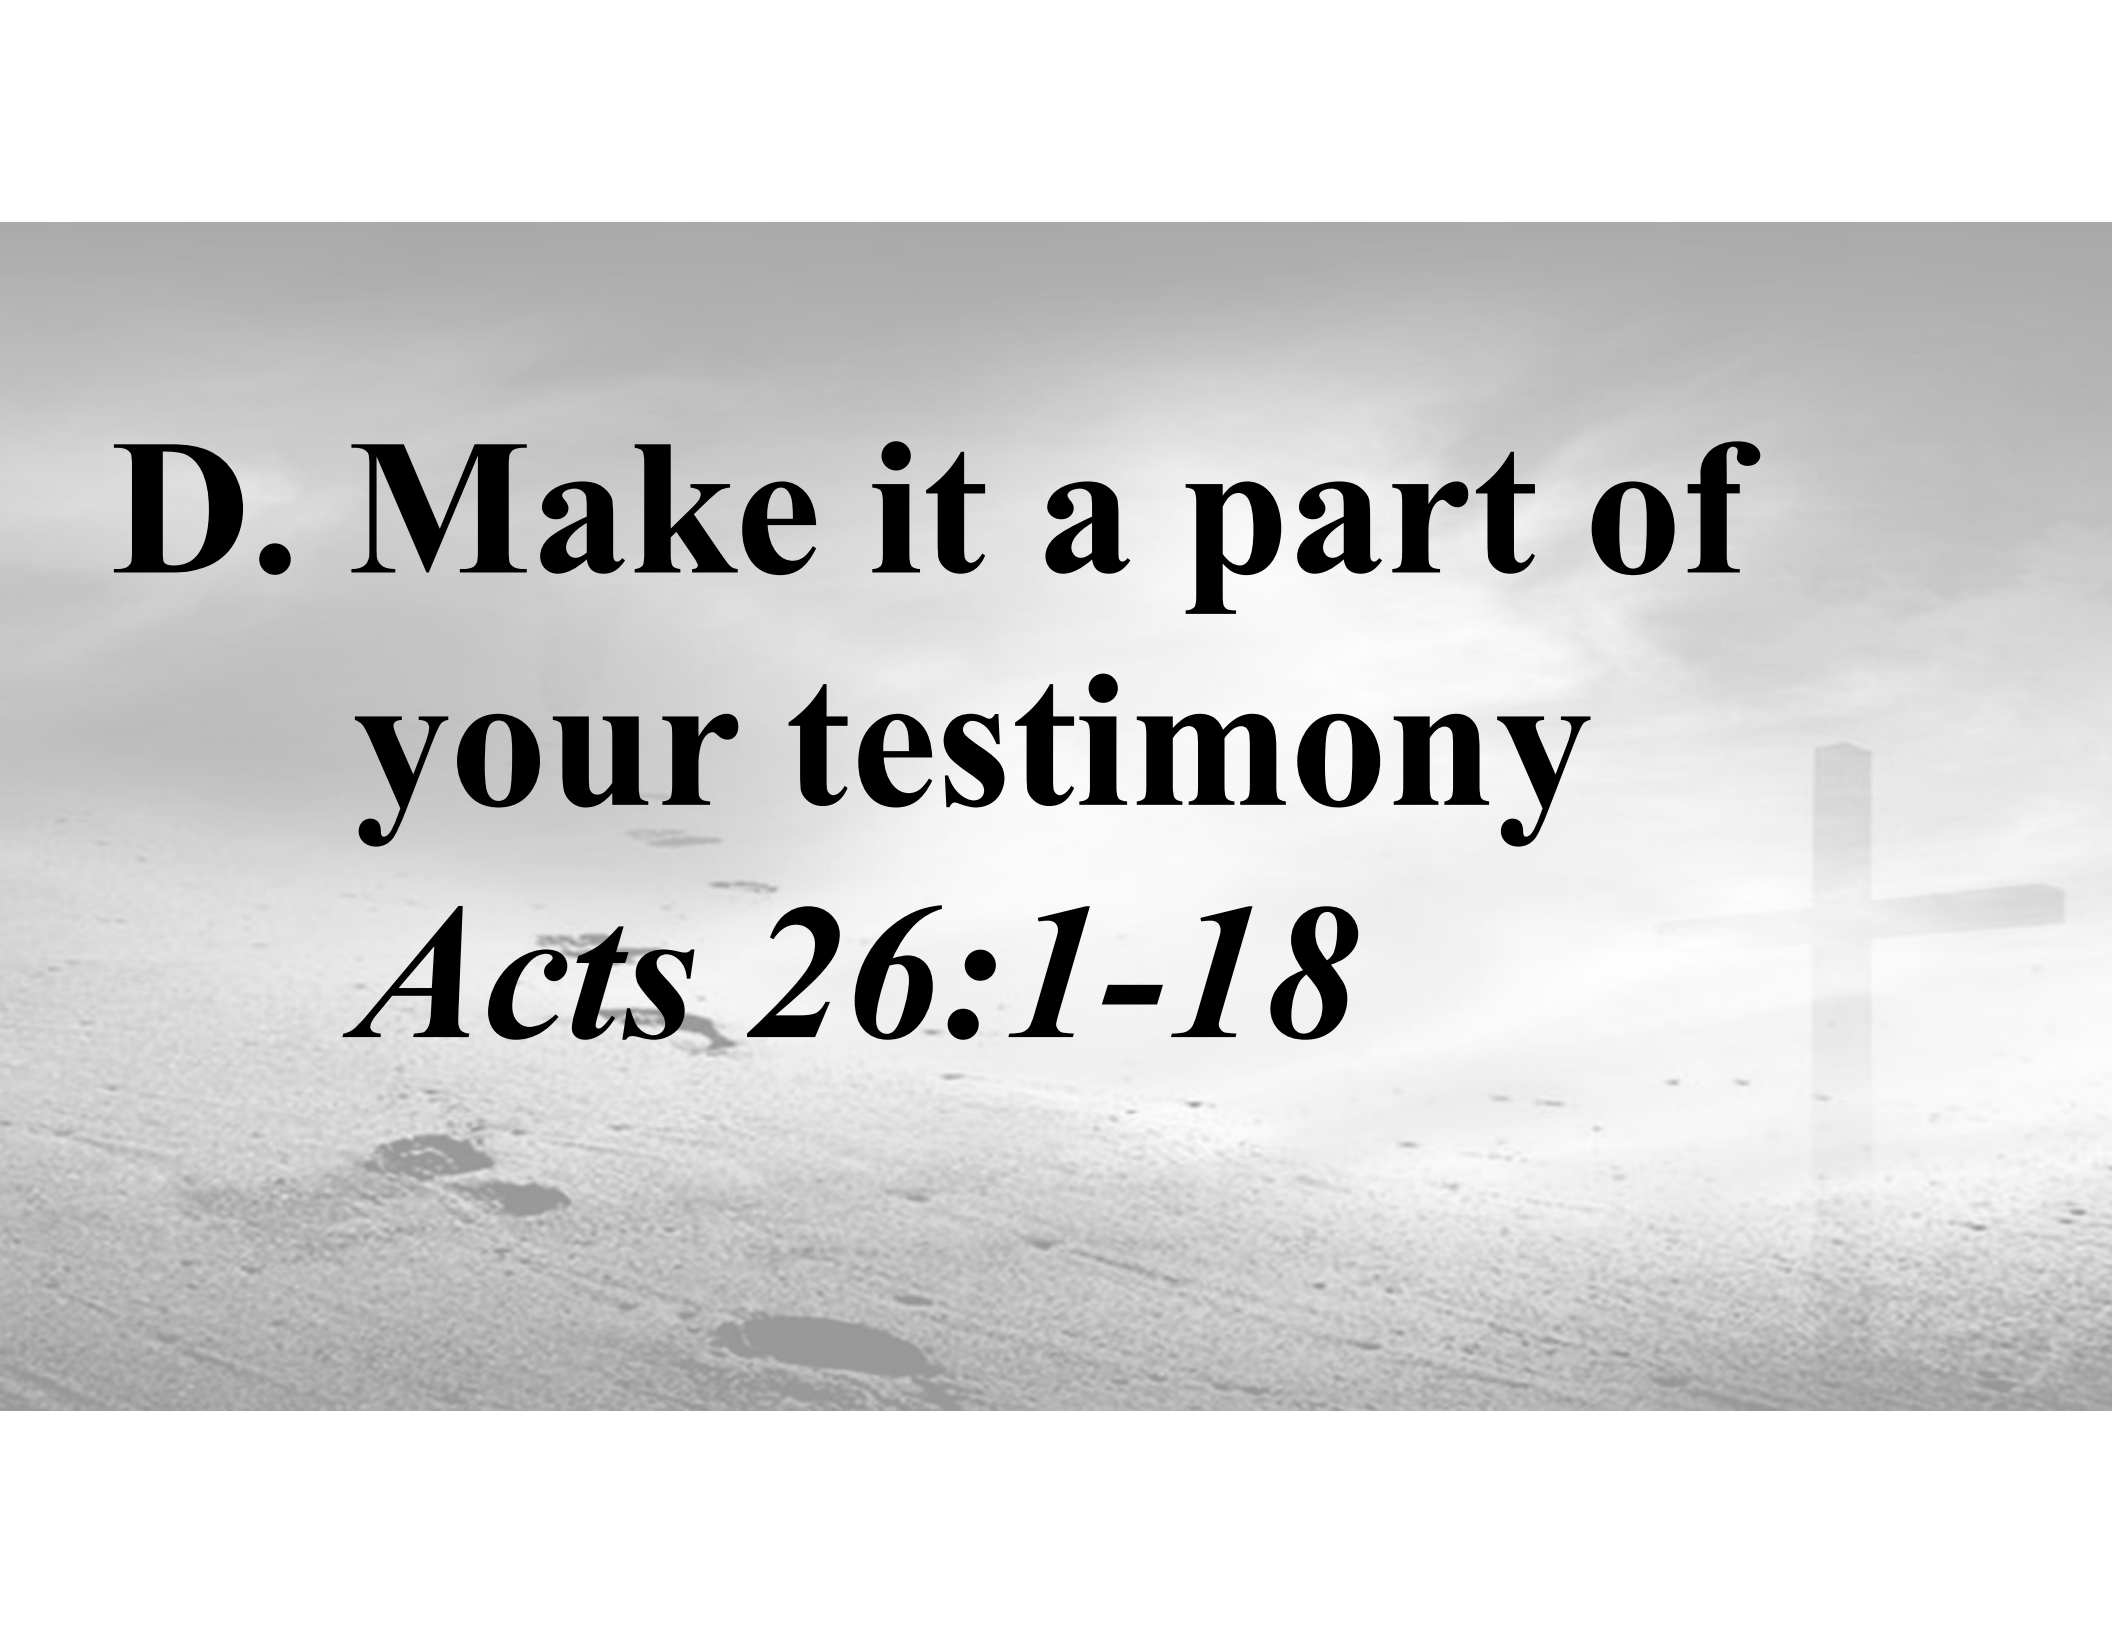

A grayscale background image of a desert landscape. The foreground shows a sandy, textured ground with some dark spots. In the distance, there are faint outlines of hills or mountains under a cloudy sky. On the right side of the image, a tall, thin cross is visible, partially obscured by the text.

B. Take your consequences to the Lord *Psalm 51

C. Praise God you are forgiven

D. Make it a part of your testimony
Acts 26:1-18
